

Subject: Service Champ AF5638 Air Filter Installation

AF5638 can be used to replace AC Delco A2947C and A3087C. The AC Delco A2947C design has a rubber seal attached to the filter and installs directly into the housing (fig 1). The AC Delco A3087C contains a sealing ring that is installed on the filter before the filter is placed in the housing (fig2). The separate sealing ring can remain in the housing when the A3087 is removed from the vehicle (fig3). This sealing ring must be removed from the housing (fig4) before the filter with the attached rubber seal can be installed.

Engine and equipment manufacturer's warranties remain in effect
